

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

QUARTZ

WHY CHOOSE WILSONART® QUARTZ?

Wilsonart® Quartz designs offer a canvas within spaces to expand on your own individual story. The beautiful neutrals that range from light to dark give you the ability to create a unique space of either calming serenity or bold drama.

Wilsonart's nationwide distribution and stocking hubs along with dedicated sales and specification teams provides a reliable combination of local accessibility backed by world-class service.

DURABLE

Highly resistant to abrasions and scratches for long-lasting beauty.

NO SEALING REQUIRED

Non-porous and non-absorbent. Inhibits the growth of mold and bacteria.

SIMPLE CLEANUP

Simple cleanup with soap and water provides easy, care-free maintenance.

10-YEAR LIMITED WARRANTY

A 10-year limited warranty protects your purchase.

VISUALIZE YOUR SPACE

Create to your heart's content with the Wilsonart® Visualizer. This interactive design tool lets you see the possibilities and design with confidence.

www.wilsonart.com/visualizer

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified to NSF/ANSI 51 means material is suitable for food contact.

Kosher certified for US in all applications where Kashrut guidelines need to be observed.

QUARTZ

Built in 1505, Badaling is the most visited site of the Great Wall of China, hosting millions annually. The warmth that can be appreciated in this area is captured by this design, which contains two neutral tones of beige that are offset by contrasting charcoal veins.

BADALING Q4001

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Mehndi or Henna is a paste historically used to decorate the palms of women. In the Hindu Vedic tradition it's a ritual used to symbolize the outer and inner sun and meant to awaken the inner light. Inspired by this tradition, Mehndi is a semi-translucent quartz design of taupe and milky cream with exquisite gold veining throughout the subtle movement. This design can be backlit.

MEHNDI Q4004

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Xcaret Park in Mexico has a network of underground fresh water rivers. The unique experience of floating the river in a rainforest is punctuated by moments of darkness and then natural light. The black backdrop of this design, with its earthy gold veining, is inspired by this appearance.

XCARET Q4006

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

The Haida people are a culture in areas of British Columbia and Alaska known for totem carvings which represent their family histories. Wilsonart's Haida quartz is inspired by this tradition and contains a bright white background with fine short black veining resembling a classic Carrara marble look.

HAIDA Q4008

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

In some areas of India one can find Kolams – intricate designs drawn with rice or stone powder onto damp pavement. These designs are a way of welcoming prosperity to the home. Our quartz is composed of a white and off white design that suggests movement and is emphasized by black veining. This design will infuse your environment with composed character.

KOLAMS Q4009

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

In the Caribbean Sea lies the island of Aruba. On its northwestern costs is found the beach of Arashi, where gentle waves and abundant wildlife create a favorite spot for snorkeling. With its white and tan design that is complimented by subtle movement, this quartz reminisces of this spectacular attraction.

ARASHI Q4011

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

As you drive through the Araku Valley in India, one can hear the cascading waters of Sangda Falls before they can be seen. With its distinctive pattern in white and grey, and its dramatic flowing movement, this quartz design captures the essence of this idyllic setting.

SANGDA FALLS Q4012

Full Slab View

 Wilsonart[®]

QUARTZ

Isselburg is a quartz countertop design with flowing pools of light taupe and warm white.

ISSELBURG
Q4013

Full Slab View

 Wilsonart[®]

QUARTZ

Santiago is a quartz countertop design with a warm white background flowing with wispy taupe, white and dark veining and pools of taupe.

SANTIAGO
Q4023

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Inspired by the ancient Roman road that can still be traveled in Spain today, Via Augusta adds depth and drama to your interior with its warm grey background laced with dramatic charcoal veining, understated white highlights and subtle movement.

VIA AUGUSTA
Q4024

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Part of the Italian Riviera, Tellaro is a quiet village offering abundant inspiration. Consider the crashing waves on the rocky coast when viewing this semi-translucent quartz countertop design. The white and grey effortlessly flow together creating a beautiful design punctuated by taupe veining and will easily complement your interior.

TELLARO Q4025

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

This quartz design reminisces of warm winds moving across desert sands and rock. The neutral and warm colors of this design draw from this inspiration, with its deep veins and pale taupe resin pools that will add warmth and glowing character to your interior.

DESERT WIND Q4031

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

The Haldi River of West Bengal flows slowly and peacefully under the Indian sun. This quartz design calls to mind this peaceful scene with its subtle movement in a semi translucent deep grey background and warm gold veining throughout, lending a rich luxe feel to your interior design.

HALDI
Q4032

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Located in the heart of Texas hill country, Lake Marble Falls' waterfalls are only revealed when the water level is lowered, serving as a celebratory area for visitors to swim and play. This locale's character is captured in this quartz countertop design, with a warm white and grey mottled background and soft, linear veining down the length of the slab.

MARBLE FALLS Q4033

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Characterized by its rugged beauty, North Cascades National Park has amazing scenic vistas with cascading waterfalls. North Cascades as a quartz countertop design captures this character in a crisp grey and white background, with warm grey natural vein structures that run like narrow rivers.

NORTH CASCADES
Q4035

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Coastal draws inspiration from seaside sands that have been caressed and shaped by ocean tides. With its warm and cool grey background and dark grey branching veins, this design will bring serene warmth and gentle character to your interior.

COASTAL
Q4036

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Arktos recalls the beauty of the depth and dimensionality found in the remote areas of the Arctic. From the intrigue found in idyllic icebergs to the vastness of far off constellations, Arktos delivers a quartz countertop design that will make your space shine. This warm white design mixes warm and cool grey soft veining with a brighter white vein in the foreground.

ARKTOS Q4037

Full Slab View

 Wilsonart[®]

QUARTZ

As the setting sun skims across the ripples on sand, it reveals the beauty of neutrals and the dimensionality of the sandy expanse.

GRAYTON BEACH
Q4039

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Climbing the dome of Enchanted Rock in Fredericksburg, Texas, one can observe nature at its best with the magnificent variety of colors and interest created through the layers of rock, cracks, and fissures. This quartz countertop design takes this inspiration and translates it into a warm charcoal base with white veining in a fractured pattern.

ENCHANTED ROCK Q4041

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Found in the Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado, the Trail Ridge Road climbs up to a 12,000 ft. elevation. Along the way, awe-inspiring color and texture found in the terrain takes one to new heights. Trail Ridge, with its two-toned grey background and light short veins throughout is a quartz design that is the perfect starting point on your interior journey.

TRAIL RIDGE Q4042

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Similar to the vastness of the Grand Canyon, the Desert View provides a wondrous view. Starting with a neutral quartz countertop design like Desert View, with its two-toned warm grey background and subtle white veins throughout can be the ideal backdrop and personality to infuse into any space.

DESERT VIEW
Q4043

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

The island of Oahu, Hawaii has some spectacular rocky formations that meet the ocean's surface. Hanola Grey is a quartz countertop design that calls to mind those rocks, glistening from the waves, in a two-toned dark grey with undertones of brown. Scattered throughout the design are wispy white veins.

HANOLA GREY
Q4044

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Nature's neutrals can be found in so many amazing places. A trip to Hamoa Beach in Maui can inform your interior choices and offer a playful platform for personalization. Hamoa is a quartz countertop design with a warm grey background and swirling white veins throughout, calling to mind a sunny day on the island beach.

HAMOA
Q4045

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

As the world's northernmost inhabited area, Svalbard features the magic of the Northern Lights. Inspired by the winter months covered in snow and rugged terrain, Svalbard is a bright white quartz countertop design with cool charcoal grey veins.

SVALBARD Q4047

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Clouds Rest is inspired by low-altitude nimbus clouds that caress the landscape and delicately move through the environment, assuming ambiguous and nebulous shapes. This design employs a white and grey background that is accentuated by darker grey veining. It will add softness and discrete elegance to your interior.

CLOUDS REST Q4049

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

With its bold, intersecting veins in both charcoals and browns, this quartz design creates a sophisticated fractured look that is immediately appealing. Set on a warm white backdrop with captivating veining, this design adds an unexpected warmth.

CAPOGROSSI
Q4052

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

With its cool white background and thin, long, grey-blue veining, River Glen recalls imagery of a narrow valley that is traversed by delicate, natural water features. This quartz design will add a crisp, dramatic sense of movement to your interior.

RIVER GLEN
Q4053

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Madeira Beach, located along Florida's Gulf Coast, is known for its soft sands. With its warm white background and contrasting yet subtle grey veins, this design is inspired both by the beach sands and celebratory character of this paradisiacal beach town. This quartz design will lend composed and distinguished character to your interior.

MADEIRA BEACH
Q4054

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Logan Pass, located in Glacier National Park, is a popular point for hiking and backpacking. Inspired by the natural surroundings found there, this two-tone grey quartz design is slightly translucent; with long, wispy and cool-white veins. This design brings an energetic, controlled dignity to your interior.

LOGAN PASS
Q4055

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

The rural hillside village of Aquilea resides in the Tuscany region of Italy and is surrounded by spectacular countryside views of the Valdottavo valley and Apennine peaks. This idyllic locale is a peaceful retreat that has been beautifully preserved. This quartz design captures this setting's serene character, with a foggy white background complemented by wide veins of cool grey that gently traverse the slab in a diagonal movement. These veins vary from wide to thin, and occasionally, fractured. Calacatta Aquilea will surely deliver an ambiance of luxurious beauty.

CALACATTA AQUILEA Q4056

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Tucked away in Italy's Apuan Alps, the village of Volegno offers stunning views and is renowned for an event where the rising sun peeks through a hole-shaped formation in nearby Monte Forato one day every year. Set in a clean white backdrop, Calacatta Volegno captures the drama of this moment with large, cool-grey veins bordered by thin, active accents in warm browns and darker greys. This design will bring a composed yet warm and inviting essence to your décor.

CALACATTA VOLEGNO
Q4057

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

The village of Pastino is located in the province of Lucca, Italy and is surrounded by picturesque landscapes and architectural marvels dating back several centuries. The large, soft grey veins found in Calacatta Pastino reminisce of this area's natural, old-world charm. Fine and active veins occasionally border these veins in darker grey, which are also found in the slab's open areas. Calacatta Pastino will add a distinctive, prestigious effect to your design.

CALACATTA PASTINO Q4058

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Flowing from the slopes of Monte Sillano, the Serchio River borders the Apuan Alps, home to the most prestigious Calacatta stone. Magnificent displays of scenic beauty abound in this area where timelessness pervades. Calacatta Serchio captures this region's allure with its bright white design and wide, soft grey veins. This quartz will add a sophisticated yet delicate elegance that complements a wide array of interior décor.

CALACATTA SERCHIO Q4059

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

One of Iceland's most active volcanoes, Hekla Slope is characterized by a long fissure spanning several kilometers. Inspired by this locale, our quartz design captures fractured rock's appearance through an archipelago of cool white fragments in a base of soft grey. Long delicate veins in grey and golden brown branch throughout the design. The effect is quietly active yet poised.

HEKLA SLOPE Q4061

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Subglacial volcanic eruptions feature superheated molten rock interacting with frigid ice. Our Volcanic Glacier quartz evokes this phenomenon's imagery, with complex, flowing reefs of white veins that fade into open expanses of deep black. This quartz countertop fosters an aura of contemplative drama that will attract attention.

VOLCANIC GLACIER Q4062

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Inspired by the intense white sandy shores of New South Wales, Australia. Vicentia is a soft white design overlaid by a network of bright white veins. These veins actively meander, occasionally bordering small, foggy resin pools that slightly amplify the contrast to create a peaceful, pure ambiance.

VICENTIA
Q4063

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Hofn Harbour is a quiet Icelandic fishing port. With its bright, slightly warm, and sandy background, this quartz is reminiscent of the reefs and shoals in this area. Glowing white veins bend throughout and sometimes border small, warm resin pools. This design will infuse your décor with a vibrant spirit.

HOFN HARBOUR
Q4064

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Meaning “river with waterfalls,” Fossa Falls is the tallest and best-known waterfall on the Faroe Islands. It is characterized by two cascading showers of water that drop into the North Atlantic Sea. Our quartz is inspired by this marvel, with a soft white background that contains wisps of a foggy grey. Thin and active veins in dark grey to warm brown traverse the slab and occasionally expose open areas of the marble-like background. Fossa Falls quartz will imbue your décor with a calming effect.

FOSSA FALLS
Q4065

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Shadow White is defined by fine short charcoal veining that resembles a Carrara marble look. It offers ease and simplicity in cleanup while still maintaining a sophisticated appearance.

SHADOW WHITE
Q6015

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

Medium grey quartz that contains short and slightly faded veins in off white. The design contains a very fine off white particulate grain throughout that lends a natural stone appearance and depth to the design.

URBAN CLOUD
Q6018

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

A cool white design. Short wisps of cool blue-grey veins organically fade in and out throughout the design, lending a wintry effect to this quartz.

MOUNTAIN CARRARA Q6021

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

A quartz that is bright and cool. This design has an overall soft effect, due to warm grey veins that are short, foggy, and slightly transparent.

CARRARA CODENA
Q6022

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

The historic Italian village of Marliana nestles into the slopes of the Pistoia Mountains, a tranquil reprieve from the demanding flurry of life. This quartz draws on the spirit of this area, with its clean white background and warm large-scale grey veins that run across the slab. Accents of light brown occasionally border these veins, while thin veins in cool grey and golden brown extend into the open background, delivering a soothing effect to your environment.

CALACATTA MARLIANA
Q4066

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

The Lycian ruins of Olympos contain a rich history, from a coastline that once harbored pirates, to ancient artwork hinting at the presence of the Byzantines. Our Calacatta Olympos quartz exhibits a similarly intriguing character, with a calming white background that is punctuated by long and thin veins in grey and brown that intermittently carry pools of soft grey. The unique veining structure will add composed energy to your décor.

CALACATTA OLYMPOS
Q4067

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Nova Serrana is a quiet city tucked into the rugged terrain of southeast Brazil where soapstone is quarried. Soapstone is used widely in décor, from historic baroque architecture to contemporary art. Wilsonart's Nova Serrana quartz captures the look and feel of soapstone, with its mottled charcoal grey background and natural matte finish. Long thin veins in black and fading veins of soft white deliver a stunning appearance that will impress and endure.

NOVA SERRANA
Q4068

Full Slab View

Wilsonart®

QUARTZ

In 1910, the British Antarctic Expedition set out to reach the South Pole, setting sail on the Terra Nova. Our quartz celebrates the creative spirit of this trek with ethereal swaths that range from bright white to golden taupe that fade in and out, almost like ice and clouds. These swaths occasionally open to expose small pools of off white. The natural matte finish of this design delivers glowing depth and will add harmonious intrigue to your décor.

TERRA NOVA
Q4069

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Kastoria, Greece is situated on the mountainous banks of Lake Orestiada and extends along a promontory jutting into the lake, making for a dazzling spectacle. Our Kastoria quartz is inspired by this landscape, with its wide, open veins that traverse the slab and stand in contrast to the bright white background. Occasional subtle veins of brown-grey add intrigue that allow this design to complement both warm and cool interior designs.

KASTORIA
Q4071

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Alvarado is the oldest city in Johnson County and a short drive from Fort Worth, Texas, but has managed to remain a quiet, quaint town with rich heritage. The intrigue of this locale is expressed in this quartz, with its short brown and grey veins and off white background that instill a gentle vibe. This design offers a high degree of coordination versatility that will suit a wide range of décor.

ALVARADO
Q4072

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

The waters of Victoria Falls in southern Africa descend hundreds of feet, creating a giant mist that envelops the falls in mystic wonder. This quartz delivers a similar effect, with a slightly translucent background and long thin veins that convey a sense of depth and movement. The impressive marble appearance of this quartz provides a practical option for those who desire the appearance of marble and the functional advantages of quartz stone.

VICTORIA MIST Q4073

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Located near the Rio Grande stands Terlingua, Texas' most visited ghost town. Once a bustling mining community, today visitors come from all over to experience the vibe of this eclectic community. This quartz draws inspiration from this locale, with its off white, sandy background and short, warm brown veins that lend a wide range of color coordination to your design.

TERLINGUA
Q6024

Full Slab View

QUARTZ

Known as the 'Oasis of West Texas', San Angelo is a city where rich history and unique art mesh in one. San Angelo quartz captures the aura of this combination with its light grey, slightly sandy background and short warm brown veins that will delightfully complement your décor.

SAN ANGELO
Q6025

Full Slab View

